

Pet-proof your home in 7 easy steps

As the colder months continue, many are looking for a furry companion to brighten up dark winter days. Before you bring home a new dog or cat, you'll need to do a thorough inspection of your home and ensure any harmful objects and chemicals are out of reach from a curious pet. Follow these seven steps to create a safe environment for your new family member.

Read more at www.otip.com/article174. #OTIPUpdate