

Option 1 (October): October is Investor Education Month

Option 2 (November–June): Investing 101: a 5-point ‘beginner’s guide’ to getting started

Myth: investing is only for the wealthy.

Truth: Investing doesn’t require a ‘top of the pay grid’ kind of income level, or even a finance degree. In fact, it’s something you can do very early on in your career—starting with as little as $2 a day.

If you’ve been wanting to invest, but don’t know how, check out this beginner’s guide to get started today: <https://bit.ly/46lQQoQ>. You’ll learn how to start small, the power of automatic contributions, and the importance of diversification.
